4 Days Eastern Malaysia Tour

Day 1: Arrive Kota Kinabalu (D)

Kota Kinabalu formerly known as Jesselton, is the capital of Sabah state in East Malaysia. It is also the capital of the West Coast Division of Sabah. The city is located on the northwest coast of Borneo facing the South China Sea. Upon arrival, meet with local guide and transfer to hotel for check in.

Day 2: Kota Kinabalu (B/L/D)

After breakfast, transfer to Tunku Abdul Rahman National Park's headquarter Pulau Manukan by cruise ship, Malaysia's first marine national park. It is located in the East Malaysian state of Sabah, just off the coast of Kota Kinabalu and is easily accessible by boat. Manukan is the most popular island with Kota Kinabalu residents. Manukan has some good stretches of beaches on the southern coastline. The best beach is on the eastern tip of the island. Offshore of Manukan are coral reefs, which is ideal for snorkeling, diving and swimming. Next to Pulau Sapi, literally known as "Cow Island" in Malay is just off the south-western tip of Pulau Gaya. The 25-acre (10 ha) island features one of the nicest beaches in the park and most popular with tourists for snorkeling and scuba diving.

Day 3: Kota Kinabalu (B/L/D)

After breakfast at hotel, try Kiulu River Rafting led by local guide. An interesting escape that will only take you 1 ½ hour from the city of Kota Kinabalu to a breathtaking backdrop of Mount Kinabalu and placing you at the second most beautiful village in Malaysia. Located somewhere on the northwestern part of Sabah, Kiulu River graded as Class I – II river is safe enough for children and gentle enough for the elderly. Trip begins with a safety briefing session conducted by our professional raft guide that will demonstrate rafting techniques and proper handling of rafting equipment before rafting commences. Excursion covers up to 15km, making it the longest white water rafting trip in Borneo. The journey will take about 1 ½ - 2 hours of rafting before reaching the ending point where delicious barbecue lunch prepared just by the riverbank.

While having your lunch, enthrall yourself with the pristine breathtaking surroundings or get a quick sun tan before heading back to your respective hotels. Enjoy an eco-tour after lunch. Thereafter take cruise ship visiting proboscis monkey and fire fly. Return to hotel at around 9:00 pm.

Day 4: Kota Kinabalu (B)

Free at your leisure after breakfast until gathering for return flight.
